Lt. Col. Tony Schwalm, former Commander in the United States Army Special Forces is a veteran of multiple combat deployments. His military career of 30+ years saw him transition from a tank commander in Operation Desert Storm, where he was awarded the Bronze Star for Valor, to becoming a Green Beret and later Commander of Special Forces training at Ft. Bragg. After the attacks of September 11th, Col. Schwalm served with the U.S. Special Operations Command. As a civilian working with the Department of the Army, Tony led a team supporting counterinsurgency operations. Author of The Guerilla Factory: The Making of Special Forces Officers—The Green Berets, Schwalm redesigned the formal training program for entry into the United States Army Special Forces.
